Boston-based wealth manager Brandon P. Fink, CFP® is transitioning his practice to Claro Advisors, LLC., bringing with him a plethora of client relationships across the U.S., which include high net worth families and entrepreneurs. Brandon is also building an impressive niche among athletes and coaches seeking professional financial advice in the world of college and professional basketball.

Brandon is departing from Equitable Advisors where he began his career as an intern in 2012. In just his first year of business at Equitable, Brandon was awarded “The National Developing Advisor of the Year” as a member of Equitable’s Retirement Benefits Group. In addition, Brandon has been named in Boston magazine as a Five Star Wealth Manager award winner \(2018-2020\) and one of the 500 Fastest Growing Advisors by wealthmanagement.com in 2019. “Moving on from Equitable Advisors was a difficult decision. It was a fantastic home for nearly 10 years and I leave behind great personal and professional relationships. However, I am excited for the opportunity to leave the broker-dealer environment with this transition to a Fee-Only Registered Investment Adviser. The added independence will help me fulfill the fiduciary promise I have made to my clients.” – Brandon Fink, CFP® Wealth Advisor- Claro Advisors, LLC.

“We are pleased to welcome Brandon to Claro’s growing team of next-generation wealth advisors. Brandon brings us a great amount of knowledge with an excellence in financial and retirement planning. He is a natural leader of the next-gen class of financial advisors, and Claro looks forward to supporting him and the impressive growth of his practice well into the future.”— Ryan Belanger, Managing Principal and Founder- Claro Advisors, LLC.

Brandon also serves an active role in the Boston Estate Planning Council, The Jewish Federation of Boston, and is an avid fan of all things basketball.
