Claro Advisors, LLC. is pleased to welcome Private Wealth Advisor, Samuel J. Diarbakerly, to our talented team of independent financial advisors. Sam joins Claro from Merrill Lynch Private Wealth Management, where he spent the last several years advising high net worth clients on complex financial planning areas such as estate planning, equity compensation management, and tax mitigation strategies.

“As a fiduciary the client’s best interest is the cornerstone of all guidance and decision making. The Claro team brings cutting edge technology to illustrate custom portfolio performance, tax documents and cash flow projections all in real time and secure.”

— Sam Diarbakerly CRPC™, Private Wealth Advisor- Claro Advisors, LLC.

“The way in which Sam truly cares about his clients, he was made for the fiduciary model. We are so glad he chose Claro’s cutting edge platform as a home for his business and his clients. Sam is without question one of the most talented financial advisors of his generation.”

— Ryan Belanger, Managing Principal and Founder- Claro Advisors, LLC.

Sam earned his MBA from the F. W Olin School of Business at Babson College and is a member of the Boston Estate Planning Council. Honesty, transparency, education and giving back are integral to Sam. He currently teaches financial literacy to low-income families in the Boston area and has served three years as mentor with Minds Matter Boston, a non-profit organization empowering high achieving low-income high school students to achieve a higher education. Sam is also an avid golfer and lover of all things history.
